Resident Spotlight- Evelyn Shellenbarger

Evelyn was born in the Detroit area on January 22, 1930, one of 4 daughters. She graduated from Big Beaver high school in 1947, third highest in her class! After graduating she worked in a factory, in a pharmacy and for a physician. Then she married her husband, Grant, and worked as a keypunch operator prior to having children. Evelyn was a stay at home mom until her youngest child was 4. She then worked for Livonia Public Schools in their personnel department for 25 years, then moved up to Hale and worked for the Iosco News Herald for close to 20 years, working in collating, eventually becoming the supervisor of that division. When health issues forced her to quit working a few years ago, she moved into Hale Creek Manor.

Evelyn has three children; Kevin is a sales manager and lives in Livonia with his wife, Chris; Tamara is a teacher in Key Largo, Florida; and Jane is a college professor at the Rochester Institute of Technology in New York. Both Kevin and Tamara are retiring this year. Evelyn has been blessed with four grandchildren and two great grandchildren. She enjoys crossword and jigsaw puzzles.

Evelyn feels the key to happiness is having a positive attitude. She loves Manor life, has made a lot of friends here and helps other residents when playing bingo. Her children feel better knowing she is in a safe environment and being well taken care of at the Manor.

The Sound of Music

In December we were blessed as several local organizations brought the joy of Christmas carols to our residents, staff and guests.

Above are the Cub Scouts from Pack 3990. They did a wonderful job and visited with residents afterwards.

Below are students from Hale High School who provided vocal harmonies for all to enjoy.

Our Christmas day

Several residents and their families were treated to a wonderful Christmas meal of turkey, ham, stuffing and many other tasty dishes. Thank you to our kitchen staff!

Below and on the lower left are the violin players led by our own Lynn Barclay. Thank you to the Hale United Methodist Church for coming to carol with us!
