CARE OPTIONS

Supportive Care

Many of our residents still have some independence, but require varying levels of assistance in daily living. Some of the activities we assist with include:

Memory Care

Having your loved one experience dementia at any stage can be a scary thing. Hale Creek's Memory Care provides peace of mind and safety with secure doors and personal, specialized care for your loved one.

Respite Care

Unexpected circumstances can arise suddenly, and your loved one may need a place to go to receive care for a temporary amount of time. Whether your loved one needs a forever home or a temporary place to stay, Hale Creek Manor Assisted Living is here for your needs.

Independent Living

Your loved one may still be highly independent, but could benefit from food, cleaning, and laundry services. Or maybe they are seeking the community, socialization, and engaging activities that a senior home provides.

OTHER HALE CREEK MANOR PROGRAMS

LIFE ENRICHMENT

Feeling at home means participating in activities you enjoy and celebrating life's significant moments. Our Life Enrichment Team plans meaningful and engaging activities for our residents to enjoy, from daily scheduled activities to special events. Our team also works with volunteers to connect residents with the local community.

- Visits from local school children
- Field Trips to Local Attractions
- Movie Matinees
- Family Picnics
- Games
- Resident Birthday Parties
- Arts & Crafts
- Christmas Tree Lightings
- Chair Exercises
- Bake Sales
- Local Musician Performances
- Singing & Worship

SPIRITUAL CARE

As a faith-based organization, we integrate our residents' physical care with emotional and spiritual care: recognizing both as an essential aspect of a resident's life. For this reason, the Spiritual Care Team offers compassionate, personalized spiritual care in accordance with each resident's spiritual beliefs and practices. Our Spiritual Care Program offers worship services, chaplain services to residents, family and staff, and end-of-life spiritual support.
